

Troop 32's Leatherworking Merit Badge

Where: Troop Meetings, Starts Nov 4th, 2019
Cost: ~$10-20 for leatherworking project materials
Counselor: Ed Pudlo

Complete a merit badge that could begin a hobby that lasts a lifetime. Leathercraft challenges your creative and hand-working skills, yet is easy and fun to learn. We will cover step-by-step instructions for your project which can then be used to complete any number of future leathercraft projects. Scouts completing the merit badge will have a leather item they will be proud to show off!

Leatherworking tools and instruction will be provided. Scouts will only need to pay for the materials for their leatherwork project. Planned leather projects will be either a Wallet, Passport Case or Leather Valet Tray. Scouts can discuss and/or bring other ideas for a project but the project must be approved by the Merit Badge counselor.
